Frequently asked questions

1 What is my out-of-pocket expense?

You will be charged ₹100 at the time of claim as your compulsory deductible. This amount is fixed across insurance companies and as regulated by Motor Tariff.

2 What are the reasons my claim might get rejected?

Commercial usage of the vehicle

If the vehicle is registered as a private vehicle and is used for commercial purposes, then the losses or liabilities due to accidents during such usage are not covered under this policy.

Aggravated loss

Aggravated Loss refers to the damage caused to a vehicle resulting from its continued use after it has been damaged in an accident.

Illegal Driving

Damage resulting from a person driving the vehicle without a valid driving license or under the influence of liquor/drugs is not covered under this policy.

Depreciation schedule

What is depreciation?

It is the factor that affects the value of vehicle & it's parts with time due to wear and tear so the insurer considers depreciation factor and would pay you the claims only after deducting the depreciation. If you have a Zero depreciation add-on with your plan, you may not worry about these deductions due to depreciation.

Depreciation % on non-metal parts

|                                                  |   |            |
|--------------------------------------------------|---|------------|
| For all plastic, rubber, nylon parts & batteries | = | 50% |
| For fibre components                             | = | 30% |
| For glass components                             | = | 0%  |
| For paint material                               | = | 50% |

Depreciation % on metal parts (Based on your vehicle's age)

|                        |   |            |
|------------------------|---|------------|
| Under 6 months         | = | 0%  |
